Assessment and Evaluation Postdoctoral Research Associate

The Center for Research on Learning and Teaching (CRLT) at the University of Michigan is pleased to announce an Assessment and Evaluation Postdoctoral Research Associate position. This is a three-year postdoc that will be an excellent opportunity for a recent PhD who wishes to explore an educational development career at a well-established center and develop significant evaluation and assessment experience. The successful candidate will work closely with CRLT’s Director of Assessment and the Assistant Vice Provost for Global and Engaged Education to evaluate and report on the Provost’s Third Century Student Learning Initiative (http://thirdcentury.umich.edu/student-learning/), which supports active and engaged learning.

The Assessment and Evaluation Postdoctoral Research Associate is a three-year staff appointment, with possibility for extension. The anticipated start date is in September (but a specific start date is negotiable). Required qualifications include a Ph.D. degree (completed), experience in postsecondary assessment, evaluation and/or educational research; demonstrated expertise in both quantitative and qualitative methods; strong oral and written communication skills; ability to work effectively in settings of social and intellectual diversity; ability to take directions, assume increasing independent responsibility, and provide follow up; strong attention to detail; and sensitivity to teaching and learning needs at a major research university, including both curricular and co-curricular learning environments. Desired qualifications include familiarity with the literature on active and experiential learning; as well as experience with large datasets, quasi-experimental design, and a faculty development or teaching center.

To apply:
• Visit the University of Michigan Job Site (http://umjobs.org).
• Search the system with the keyword “CRLT” (the position # is 98679)
• Upload a CV and cover letter as a single document (applicants may only upload one document).

For questions, contact Mary Wright, Director of Assessment (734-936-1135, mcwright@umich.edu).
